

Explosive Minds! Introduction

Our next guests are experts in the unknown. They are one of the only companies in the world who are proud to say “Let’s make it up as we go along.”

They consist of performers who have worked in radio, film and television across Australia and they recently appeared on The David Letterman Show.

In fact, following on from this success, they just signed their first contract with Foxtel...

Yes for sixty-nine-ninety-five they get 30 channels a month!
