

“The delayed impact of your presentation was more than any of us had expected. You gave us the direction we needed to regroup, reflect and reconfirm our ‘clarity of purpose’. It has amazed us how we can relate our work environment to the leadership issues that you experienced. As you so aptly called your presentation - Leadership matters.”

FULL INFORMATION

Peter Baines is an expert at creating successful results starting from nothing – no time, no money, no staff, but as Peter says, “No worries”. Throughout almost two decades Peter has experienced and led people through some of life’s most challenging events.

During a police career spanning over two decades, Peter came up against some of the most confronting natural disasters and acts of terrorism in recent times; making him one of Australia’s most experienced disaster management specialists. His roles have included leading both national and international teams following the Bali bombings, the Waterfall train disaster and the Boxing Day Tsunami. These experiences enable Peter to offer a rare insight into what it takes to lead powerfully and with compassion, within the most extraordinary of circumstances.

Taking his audience into a world that many would never dare to tread. Peter provides a journey into the fascinating world of crisis leadership and forensic science; in addition to his own experience of what it really takes to achieve results amidst unrelenting change.
